APPLIANCES

Many community service organizations accept working appliances and you may even receive a tax deduction for the donation. Non-working appliances have value as scrap metal. When you purchase a new appliance, ask the retailer if they will pick-up the old one when the new one is delivered or refer to Metal for a listing of scrap metal yards that may take appliances. Freon must be removed from refrigerators, air conditioners and dehumidifiers prior to disposal.

ASBESTOS

Asbestos is a hazardous material when the fibers are released into the air. Exposure to asbestos fibers can cause a variety of illnesses including lung cancer. You should consult with an environmental professional if you suspect that material in your home is asbestos. Asbestos from homes can legally be disposed with regular trash; however, it is very important to inform your waste hauler or label the containers to prevent exposure to the workers. OSHA and NESHAPs regulate businesses with asbestos-containing materials in their buildings. The following listings may provide assistance in sampling, testing, removal and disposal of asbestos.

AUTOMOTIVE FLUIDS

Used oil was banned from disposal in landfills in 2004. Residents that choose to change their own oil should store the oil in a closed, sturdy container. Most oil change facilities in Livingston County will accept up to 5 gallons of used oil at no charge. Please respect their generosity by recycling only pure used oil and call prior to bringing the used oil. Some of the facilities may also accept used antifreeze and/or oil filters. Always call first.

BATTERIES

ALKALINE

Batteries contain heavy metals that can be harmful to the environment if disposed in a landfill or incinerator. Alkaline batteries are accepted at the Livingston County Household Hazardous Waste Collection events, Township Halls, and most Libraries and Post Offices. Call first.

AUTOMOTIVE

Lead acid batteries were banned from disposal in landfills in Michigan in 2004. Please recycle them at one of the following locations. Retailers that sell car, boat, tractor, or other large batteries are required by law to accept old car batteries when a new car battery is purchased. Other places to take car batteries without a purchase are listed below.

FURNITURE/HOUSEHOLD ITEMS

Between family, friends, neighbors, consignments shops, and community organizations, there is almost always an outlet for usable furniture. Damaged furniture that cannot be repaired can be taken to a nearby landfill or transfer station for a fee. Some local municipalities hold annual clean-ups where large items can be disposed for little or no cost. Contact your city, township or village for more information. You can also contact your trash hauler to find out if they will pick up the item curbside.

GREETING CARDS

Most cards can be recycled with your paper or you might consider contacting your local church, schools or community organizations, where they can be used for arts and craft projects.

HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE

Many of our garages, bathrooms, kitchens, and basements are filled with products that make our lives easier. However, some of these items can be harmful if they are thrown in the trash or dumped down drains or on the ground. The best way to reduce waste is to buy only what you need and to use what you buy. Unfortunately, many residents inherit unwanted chemicals from previous homeowners or relatives. The following are two options to safely discard materials such as cleaners, oil based paint products, mercury, lawn and garden chemicals, automotive products, and many other items.

Livingston County HHW Collections 517-545-9609

Accepts household cleaners, mercury, oil based paint and related products, pool chemicals, lawn and garden chemicals, automotive products and much, more. Homeowners only, call for an appointment.

248-449-7216 28265 Beck Road, Ste. C-6 Wixom, MI 48393

JUNK MAIL

To prevent junk mail, there are several agencies that you can call or write to request that your name be removed from their mailing list. Also, call all of your credit card companies, magazine subscriptions, or other memberships to “opt out.” Whenever you order from the Internet or catalogs, make sure that you request that your information is not shared.

LANDFILLS & TRANSFER STATIONS

If the item you no longer need or want cannot be reused or recycled by any of the organizations listed in this guide, you still have a few options for disposal. Contact your trash hauler to determine if they will accept the item curbside or if they provide roll-off containers for items like construction debris. Many local units of government also sponsor one-day collections, usually in the spring or fall, where residents can dispose of unwanted items – contact your respective city, village or township for details. Lastly, you can load the items up and take them to the nearest landfill, transfer station or processing facility. Call first for hours, prices, and restrictions.

MERCURY

Mercury is a highly toxic metal that emits a colorless and odorless gas when released. Polluted water and soil causes fish advisories in many water bodies. NEVER vacuum or sweep spilled mercury! Mercury spills should be immediately reported to Poison Control at 800-222-1222 or the Livingston County Environmental Health Department at 517-546-9858. Large or small quantities of mercury can be taken to the locations listed under Household Hazardous Waste. See Thermostats for locations to drop off used thermostats when removed from a house.

METAL

Metals are the most commonly recycled commodities around the world. Some communities have curbside programs for steel and aluminum cans – call your trash hauler for details. Larger items such as aluminum siding, appliances, cars, and tools contain a variety of recyclable metals. See the “scrap metal” section of the Yellow Pages or try one of the organizations listed below.

PAINT

Buy only as much as you need and try to share leftover paint with neighbors or community organizations such as Habitat for Humanity or Community Theatre Groups. Latex paint, once dried out, is no longer hazardous to the environment. Open the cans in a well-ventilated area and mix in a drying agent such as kitty litter to speed up the drying process. Once the paint is dried, it should be left out next to your trash receptacle with the lids removed, and your trash hauler will dispose of it.

Oil based paint can be brought to the Livingston County HHW or to IRWS. See Household Hazardous Waste.

PESTICIDES/HERBICIDES

The Michigan Department of Agriculture manages two programs targeting farm quantities of pesticides, herbicides, and other agricultural chemicals, and their containers. The following locations will accept pesticides, herbicides, and any other lawn/garden chemical from any end user, including residences and farmers.

Ingham County Health Dept.

517-887-4521

PHARMACEUTICALS

Do not flush or pour medicines down the drain. Items that are poured down the drain end up in our watersheds and many water treatment plants are unable to filter out these chemicals. Keep medicines in their original containers, blacking out any personal information, and add a small amount of water to solid drugs or flour to liquid drugs, before recapping. Double bag them in opaque bags and place in your garbage. For more information call the DEQ information line at 800 662-9278.

PLANT CONTAINERS

Those plastic plant containers that you get from a nursery or tree farm can be reused at your home or ask the nursery if they can recycle them. Make sure they are in good condition before you drop them off.

PLASTIC BAGS

Reduce waste by taking cloth bags when you shop or reusing plastic or paper bags. You can recycle plastic bags at various grocery/retail establishments throughout the county and Recycle Livingston, 517-548-4439. Many dry cleaners will recycle bags and hangers as well. Please respect these organizations that are trying to reduce waste by not contaminating their load with bags that are not acceptable.

PRINTER CARTRIDGES

Refillable printer cartridges are available for most printers. In addition, many refurbished printer cartridges are available that are less expensive than new ones. All used printer toners and ink cartridges are recyclable. Many of them have cash value. Look in the Yellow Pages for a printer supply store near you.

PROPANE TANKS

Any tank under pressure, such as propane, helium, or butane, can cause injury to sanitation workers and equipment if they explode. Propane tanks that are not equipped with the overfill protection device (OPD) cannot be refilled. A quick way to tell if your tank has the device is to look at the valve – if it is triangular, it is ok; if it is round, then it must be upgraded or recycled. Visit www.usemichiganpropane.com for a list of participating retailers or contact one of the organizations listed below. Call first for possible pricing and tank requirement.

SHARPS

“Sharps” is a broad term used to describe syringes with attached needles and lancets. When disposed with the regular trash, they can be harmful to sanitation and recycling workers. To reduce the dangers of sharps, you may choose to purchase a pre-paid mail container, sold at most pharmacies, or use a liquid laundry detergent bottle or coffee can as storage. Place used needles in the container and take the full container to one of the locations listed below or ask your pharmacy or doctor if they will accept used sharps.

SMOKE DETECTORS

Smoke detectors contain a very small amount of radioactive material. Some manufacturers will accept their smoke detectors for recycling. Following are some common manufacturers. Send the used smoke detector using regular ground mail in a padded envelope. For additional questions, contact the Nuclear Regulatory Commission at 360-829-5500. Non-radioactive smoke detectors are available that rely on ionized air and are less sensitive to humidity and cooking smoke.

YARD WASTE

Yard waste is banned from landfills and incinerators in Michigan. Grass cycling is an easy and effective way to reduce yard waste. By leaving the grass clippings on the lawn after mowing, you eliminate the need for bagging and reduce the need for fertilizers since the grass clippings provide valuable nutrients and water.

Leaves, brush, and pruning can be composted at home. Composting is a natural and simple process of recycling yard waste back into the soil. Call the Livingston County Solid Waste Program (517-545-9609) for more information on backyard composting or visit our website at co.livingston.mi.us/solidwaste

Some communities and trash haulers offer curbside pick up of yard waste. Contact your local municipality or trash hauler for more information. There are also two compost farms in the county where you can drop off yard waste for a fee.
